

Professor Naveed Sattar
Professor of Metabolic Medicine

Email: N.Sattar@clinmed.gla.ac.uk

Tel: 0141-330-3419

Fax: 0141-330-1689

Naveed Sattar is Professor in Metabolic Medicine at University of Glasgow / Honorary Consultant in Clinical Biochemistry, Glasgow Royal Infirmary.

Career History

- 1999-2004 Senior Lecturer and Reader in Endocrinology and Metabolism/ Honorary Consultant in Clinical Biochemistry, Departments of Clinical Biochemistry, Glasgow Royal Infirmary
- 1993-1999 Specialist Registrar in Clinical Biochemistry, Institute of Biochemistry, Glasgow Royal Infirmary

Research Supervision History

- Supervised three completed MD post graduate students totalling 14 peer reviewed papers.
- Supervisor in four other ongoing MD/PhDs at various stages.
- Significant involvement in at least five other MDs, being senior or corresponding author on eight relevant papers plus involvement in many others.
- Significant involvement in many papers/studies with others juniors leading to peer reviewed papers (~eight)
- Involvement (senior or corresponding author) in two medical students projects leading to peer reviewed papers.
- Regular teacher to medical students and postgraduate students and invited to teach UK Specialist Registrars in a variety of disciplines.

Awards/Prizes

- 2002 Professors Prize in Clinical Biochemistry
- 2005 RD Lawrence Lecture, Diabetes UK
- 2006 John French Lecture, British Atherosclerosis Society
- 2006 Professor Tom Gibson Award, Universities of Glasgow/Strathclyde and Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, Glasgow.

International Work

- Numerous invited talks at international meetings – e.g. ADA (2007), Pre-diabetes/ Metabolic Syndrome (2007), International Diabetes Federation (2006), International Study of Obesity (2006), EULAR (2005 and 2007), Endocrine Society (2003), European Biochemistry meeting (2005)
- Invited editorials/reviews from EHJ, Lancet, Diabetologia, and Current Opinion papers (n=3)
- On American Diabetes Association 2007 conference committee for epidemiology section
- On Diabetes UK Conference Organising committee for 2007 and 2008
- Marker for European Society for Cardiology, American Diabetes Association annual meetings
- Edited ABC series of 12 papers on Obesity for British Medical Journal
- Regular reviewer for JAMA, Lancet, Circulation, NEJM, EHJ etc
- On Editorial boards for Clinical Science, Atherosclerosis, International Journal of Clinical Practice and Journal of Clinical Endocrinology & Metabolism